Payroll Bureau

Why consider outsourcing your payroll?

Staying on top of payroll is a major challenge for any employer, with frequently changing rates of tax, pension contributions, student loan contributions, maternity and paternity pay and not to mention the National Minimum Wage (NMW) and National Living Wage (NLW).

With such frequent rule changes and any personnel changes that take place in your business, the amount of work required to keep on top of payroll can quickly spiral and take up more and more time as a business grows – time that could be spent on running your business.

The consequences of getting things wrong can be severe, with steep fines for breaches of the different rules governing payroll and the risk of the loss of employee confidence.
